No Christian escapes a taste of the wilderness on the way to the promised land.
Evelyn Underhill.

The Sixth Sunday of Easter.

From Monday 10th May people will be able to attend Mass. Masses on Monday 10th in Keadue, Tuesday & Wednesday, in Arigna. Thursday & Friday in Ballyfarnon. Social Distancing and the wearing of Masks is essential.

Week-end Masses 8th & 9th May: Vigil Mass, Ballyfarnon 7p.m. Sunday Mass. Arigna 10a.m. and Keadue 11.30am. All Masses on Line on Facebook at Kilronan Parish and on Local Radio FM108.

From Monday 10th May Mass resumes with a congregation of no more than 50 people while observing the two metre Social Distancing rule inside and outside the church. Masks must be worn inside the Church.

For the time being, beginning on Saturday evening, 15th May, the Vigil Mass will take place in Keadue Church at 8p.m. (Keadue is the only church in the parish large enough to easily accommodate 50 people) Sunday Mass will take place in Arigna Church at 10a.m. and in Keadue Church at 11.30 a.m. If people cannot be accommodated in accordance with the regulations, the stewards will ask people when the church has reached its quota to return to their cars where they can listen to Mass on Local Radio F.M 108 and Holy Communion will be distributed to the people in the Car Park.

Anniversary Masses Families who have arranged anniversary Masses must contact 086-2691806 a few days before the Anniversary Mass, giving the exact numbers of those who wish to attend Mass. It may not be possible to meet every ones request, especially if there are a number of anniversaries taking place at the same Mass. It is essential that the designated family members who are attending the anniversary Mass arrive in the church at least 15 minutes before the Mass is due to begin. It would be very helpful if families could arrange or rearrange anniversary Masses for the weekday Masses.

St. Ronan's Lotto: There was no winner of the lotto jackpot when the draw was held at the weekend. The numbers drawn were 1,6,11 and 13. Thanks to all our stewards who play a very important role in welcoming people and showing them to their seats and also directing people to and from Holy Communion. It's essential that we all follow the directions of the stewards. Thanks to all who sanitise the Churches before and after each Mass.
