Christ has no body on earth
but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours.
St Teresa of Avila

The third Sunday of Lent .

This reading shows the humanity of Jesus. Jesus got mad! This reading states that Jesus “drove them all out. . . spilled the coins. . . Overturned their tables.” Jesus saw something that was totally wrong, and he was mad, and he did something about it!
St. Thomas Aquinas wrote that if a person can live in the midst of injustices without getting angry, one is both immoral and unjust. Apparently, Aquinas would have been proud of Jesus for upsetting the money changers who were notorious for cheating customers on the exchange rate.

Is there any injustice that really makes you mad— maybe to the point of losing your temper? Racism? Abuse? Violence? Greed? War? At what point does a certain injustice cause us to do something? Maybe write a letter? Send a donation? Volunteer our time? Say a prayer? Or just get involved! Certainly we can't take up every cause, but is there any particular issue that moves you to do something?
