21st October 2018

It is easier to fight for one's principles than to live up to them

Alfred Adler

Twenty-ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time. Mission Sunday

Pope Francis Said 'All Christian Families are missionary families'. On mission Sunday we come together to celebrate and encourage the sharing of the Good News in every church, in every Parish, in every corner of our planet. It's a celebration of solidarity and unity. By contributing to the annual Propagation of the Faith Collection we are ultimately helping the Marginalised and disadvantaged communities to thrive through faith, hope and love.

Ballyfarnon Community Group Public Meeting: Thursday 25th October at 8.30pm in Ballyfarnon Community Centre. This meeting is being held to update the community on the planned work on the hall which is to commence shortly, plans for the building will be available to view and an overview of the work done to date on grants etc will be given by the chairperson, anyone with questions or queries about the development should come along this will be the final opportunity to give your view and see the plans before the construction work starts.

Adult Circuit Training: The good news is James is staying on with us in Keadue Hall for another round to help get us fit in time for Christmas; if you want to achieve that goal why not schedule in an hour for yourself...bring a friend as newcomers are always welcome or come and join in with the regulars. This will be starting on Tuesday 23rd October 8-9pm. You register on the night great €30 for 6 weeks or €7 a week PAYG.

Youth Group - For a lengthy period of time now we have not had any Youth Group in our area. I am putting a request out to all Parents/Guardians of Youth aged 10+ to please come along to an information evening on Wednesday 24th October at 8pm in the Arigna Enterprise Centre. The Youth Group will operate under the umbrella of Foróige and Jim Maher is very kindly taking the time to help us all, as a community, get this up and running. This will be a completely new club so why not come along to the information evening and together let's make this work for our Youth!, For info please contact Phillipa 087 4324183.
