

Thirty third Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. A gift given in love, is given to be enjoyed, treasured, and used. Through fear, one servant failed to recognise the loving trust being shown to him and buried the talent. When have you found that overcoming fear helped you to make the most of opportunities in life?

2. On the level of our own personal life, faith is not given to us to be locked away, but to be "traded" with. We trade with it when we believe in its value, trust it, and use it, bringing it into the experiences we have in daily life. Can you recall times when relying on your faith has brought you rewards?

3. Likewise with our own personal gifts and talents. We can fall into the trap of seeing these as our personal possession so that we can do with them as we like, rather than share them as gifts so that they can be multiplied. What is your experience of hoarding or sharing your own gifts? When did you feel most alive?

4. Pope Francis in his letter The Joy of the Gospel wrote, 'I invite everyone to be bold and creative in this task of rethinking the goals, structures, style and methods of evangelization in their respective communities. ... The important thing is to not walk alone, but to rely on each other as brothers and sisters.' Intercom, John Byrne osa

Covid-19 Public Regulations. Masses to be celebrated Via Facebook on Kilronan Parish or via local radio without anyone present in the church. The only exceptions to this rule are (a) Funeral Masses with up to 25 mourners. (b) Marriages with up to 25 guests. Churches may remain open for private prayer only, with adequate sanitising measures.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Mass Times for this week on Facebook at Kilronan Parish and on Local Radio. Vigil Mass Saturday evening in Ballyfarnon at 7p.m., Arigna, Sunday, 10a.m.; Keadue, Sunday, 11.30a.m. Weekday Masses @ 10a.m.; Tuesday & Wednesday in Arigna; Thursday & Friday in Ballyfarnon.
