The Parish Cemeteries in Kilronan and Arigna can be viewed on line. There is a direct link to each cemetery from the parish website kilronanparish.ie. A map of Kilronan Cemetery can be viewed at the back of Keadue Church and the map for Arigna cemetery at the back of Arigna Church. We are asking everyone who has a loved one or neighbour buried in these cemeteries to check out the map to make sure that their plot and names are recorded properly. There are forms near the map and any corrections should be recoded on this form. The form can be left in the church or dropped in the offertory basket or into the Parochial House or given to any member of the Parish Pastoral Council. Also if you can identify any of the unmarked graves it would be great help; please fill in a form giving whatever details you have. When all the information has been gathered, a permanent map of the graves will be erected in each cemetery and the website will be updated. The closing date for receiving information is 16th June.

The new e-mail address for sending material for inclusion in the weekly Parish Newsletter is: newsletter@kilronanparish.ie

Charity Tax: There has been a good response again this year to the Charity Tax form that were sent out a few weeks ago. If you have forgotten to fill in your form please return it by Sunday next 2nd June. If you have mislaid your form I will be happy to send you out another one. Contact me at 086-2691806. Every form returned is very valuable to the parish.

Vigil For Life: On Saturday, 8th June, there will be a Vigil for Life in Merrion Square, Dublin from 3p.m. to 4p.m. The Government intends to legalise abortion in July, and a large attendance in Merrion Square is essential to oppose this. The vigil will send a clear, positive message about safeguarding the lives of mothers and babies in pregnancy. Posters will be provided on the day. Please spread the word to family, friends and anyone you know. We are planning to arrange transport to Dublin. Anyone interested in travelling by Bus should contact Margaret or Paul Kelly 071– 9647181, Mrs Martina Wynne 086-8045177 or Mrs Bridie McCawley 086-3379141 before 12 noon on Tuesday 4th June.
