Choose to be kind rather than to be right and you'll be right every time.

The tenth Sunday of the Year

When Jesus looks on the widow's dead son, he is moved with pity compassion, and he wants to relieve the widow's sorrow. He comforts her with the words "Do not weep" and then raises the young man from death. In the Gospels, when Jesus encounters the sick, the hungry, the helpless, he is moved with compassion. God's compassion is never withheld from us, and we should never withhold our compassion from others.
