The Dermot Earley Youth Leadership Programme are looking for 15-18 year olds interested in doing the programme. The programme is not all books and writing it is a fun enjoyable programme where you get to meet people from your county and learn about the leadership skills that Dermot Earley used and went by. If those who apply do module 1&2 and wish to go on and do module 3 they do a community action based project such as coaching young GAA players, by doing this you can graduate from NUIG with a foundation cert in youth and community action (great for the cv). It won't affect school work as its is done at weekends & holidays. To apply go to <http://www.gaa.ie/community/community-development/dermot-early-youth-leadership-initiative/> closing date 19th July.
