Always look at what you have left. Never look at what you have lost. Robert H. Schuller

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time –Year A

“Some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit.” We know that good, rich soil usually doesn’t just happen. At the least it requires careful preparation, maintenance, and restorative nutrients. We also know that God’s Word (the seed) has the power of new life within it. But in order for us to understand God’s Word, recognize its truths, and act on it, we really have to prepare the soil within ourselves. What steps am I prepared to take to improve the soil of my life ?

O’Carolan Harp Festival committee meeting on Monday night 14th

The Festival Launch which was held in Kilronan Castle on last Thursday night was very well attended—thanks to everybody. The entertainment in the Dungeon Bar provided a most enjoyable setting for a well deserved presentation to festival secretary Paraic Noone in appreciation of his thirty six years in the position and of his long service to the community of Keadue
