Weekday Masses 10am. Monday 16th Keadue, Friday 20th Ballyfarnon Both Masses offered for those on the November list of the dead

Congratulations and best wishes to Amanda Burke, Keadue and Joseph Logan, Drumshanbo, who were married in Keadue Church on Saturday 14th.

The Parish Mission concludes on Sunday with Mass in all three churches.

Ballyfarnon 10a.m., Arigna 10.30a.m . and Keadue 12noon.

The People of the Parish Kilronan wish to express their gratitude to the Redemptorist Mission Team of Fr. Brendan Keane CSsR; Fr. John Doherty CSsR and Ms Sarah Kenwright, who conducted a prayerful, joyful and stimulating parish mission. This was the first clergy-led mission in the Parish since November 2001 when a mission was also conducted by a Redemptorist Team. Do please remember these new friends in your prayers.

The people of the parish turned out in great numbers to the four daily Masses and to the evening ceremonies.

Thanks to the ladies who provided the refreshments after the Friday evening Mass remembering all those who died during the last twelve months and those whose names were submitted on the November Lists for the Dead in the three churches.

The November List for the Dead are available in each of the Churches. During November two Masses each week will be offered for your deceased relatives and friends.

World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims, Sunday 15 November marks 'World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims'. This gives us all an opportunity to remember those who have died on our roads and the families, friends and communities who have been devastated by their loss. For thousands of families around the country, their lives have forever changed as a result of a collision This year, we have tragically already seen 127 lives lost on our roads. That is 127 families and communities who are devastated by a loss this year in counties all over Ireland.
