

"I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of heaven..."

The twenty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A)

Isn't it amazing? Each of us is important to Jesus for who we are, not because of any other connection in our lives - not because of my family, my accomplishments, where I live, what I do or my other assets. We, his followers, are important to the Lord. He has given us life and he shares his with each of us. He wants to know our hearts. Jesus is the source of life for the whole universe of which we are a part. Let's keep our eyes on the fact that each one of us is so important to Jesus. Jesus wants our hearts. Everyone is a child of God. What is important is who is Jesus for me at this time in my life and who am I for Jesus.
