St Ronan's U6, U8, U10 Fund – Thank you to everyone who contributed to the All-Ireland Final score prediction fund raiser. There was no exact score prediction winner so an open draw was held. The name drawn was John Reynolds, Arigna. Congratulations to John who won €100. St Ronans U6 U8 & U10s will have their last training session of the year next Saturday 3rd October @ 5pm which is a change from our usual day. There will be a presentation made to each child individually and their extended families and friends are welcome to come along, we're hoping for a good crowd to finish off a very successful year. We are also delighted to report that after a 4 year gap we will be able to field a full U12 boys team next year and also hope to get an U12 girls team going. This year we had 73 children registered with us up to U10 which was the highest in several years, we hope to see them all togged out next Saturday. The club would like to thank the local community for supporting all our teams but particularly the underage group.
